Old Business

I. Community Garden

Poetker reported that a meeting was held at the community garden on Saturday and all beds are spoken for. RBHS has donated a garden shed and Farm Credit is donating a picnic table/umbrella. Matt Schaefer has been invaluable. The Walmart grant for $3,500 has been applied for. Poetker would like to apply for the Governor's Hometown Award for this program.

V. Public Comments/Anything for the Good of the City

Poetker said that there will be a request from RBHS for approval to raise funds for someone at school who has emergency medical needs. This came in too late for the committee meeting, but will be on the council agenda.

Donjon commented about Cameron Mueth, who is painting the light poles as a beautification service project.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:55 P.M.

Respectfully Submitted,

Joanne G. Cowell, City Clerk
Red Bud, Illinois
