III. Request from, Brock Quigley to Host Kickball at Lincoln Park – Wednesdays June 1 – August 15, 2022

Chairman Donjon presented a proposal from Gregson Construction for the labor and equipment work for the sidewalk at Lion Park. Hanebutt said this project had been approved with labor to be completed by the city and questioned why it had not been done. Eckart said that they just have not had the time to get to it and that it takes a lot more to put in a totally new sidewalk than it does to replace one; Gregson's will be more proficient, and you will get a better product if they do it.

Recommendation made by Committee Chairman Donjon, seconded by Committee Member DeMond to authorize approval to hire Gregson Construction to provide the labor and equipment (concrete excluded) for the Lion's Park sidewalk, NTE $8,912.50. The vote was as follows: Donjon, aye; Hanebutt, nay; Nevois, aye; Harbaugh, aye, DeMond, aye. Recommendation passed by a 4-1 vote.

Harbaugh questioned the cost of the concrete and said there is $11,000 budgeted for the total project. Concrete is estimated at $2,600. She did have a previous note saying "Lion's –

IV. Public Comments/Anything for the Good of the City

Chairman Donjon said the workday at Ratz Park on May 15th, went well and thanked Jeremy DeMond for his leadership and all the people who helped. It looks great.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:20 P.M.

Respectfully Submitted,
