Written reprimand is more severe than a verbal reprimand, but serves the same purpose to acknowledge that further unsatisfactory conduct, attitude or performance will result in more severe disciplinary action. A copy of the written reprimand may be sent to the employee, the Elected Official/Department Head and put in the employee's personnel file.

(C) Suspension Without Pay. Suspension of an employee is at the discretion of the Department Head who may suspend the employee immediately. The Department Head shall report such suspension to the Mayor immediately. The Mayor shall report the suspension to the City Council who must meet to act upon the suspension within ten (10) days of the Department Head suspending the employee. The suspension will result in a loss of salary for the period of the suspension. Upon return to work the suspended employee will be placed on probationary status for a period not to exceed six (6) months. If the employee violates the conditions of the probation, the employee may be subject to termination. Removal from probationary status is based upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, a recommendation from the employee's immediate supervisor, and the approval of the Department Head. The suspension may include demotion. Benefits shall continue to accrue.

[NOTE: Notwithstanding the above, the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the City Council, may suspend an employee with pay when an employee is suspected of violating his/her duty owed to the City.]

(D) Dismissal. Employees are subject to discharge by the Mayor (with advice and consent of the City Council, excepting appointed personnel) during any of the disciplinary steps and pursuant to the procedures stated in Section 32-19 of the City Code.

(B) Adherence to Procedure. Strict adherence to the grievance procedures and time limits is mandatory, except that the time limits may be extended by the Mayor with the consent of the City Council for good cause.

(C) Grievance Defined. (E) Day Defined. As used in this Section, the term "day" shall mean working day.

(F) Denial of Grievance. At any step, if a written response is not provided to the grieving employee within the ten (10) day time frame, the grievance will be considered denied at that step, and the employee may proceed to the next step.

(G) No Grievance Procedure. If any employee is suspended or discharged by the Mayor pursuant to Section 32-19 of the City Code, the discipline and/or discharge shall constitute the final resolution of the matter and there shall be not access in this instance to the various steps of the grievance procedure.

The Mayor will respond within ten (10) working days.

A request to the Personnel Committee must be made in writing within five (5) working days of the Mayor's decision. The Committee, after a full examination of the facts (which may include a review of the written summary of the employee's statement, discussion with all individuals concerned, and a further investigation if necessary) will render its decision within ten (10) working days of the date the employee filed his request for review.

(d) Step Four. An employee may appeal the decision of the Personnel Committee to the City Council within five (5) working days of receipt of the decision of the Personnel Committee. The Council shall take such action as it deems appropriate. The decision of the City Council shall be final and made within ten (10) working days of the date the appeal is filed.
